Rules and regulations

Set up time;

Building will be open on Friday April 12, 2019 from noon until 5pm for vendors to set up their space. On Saturday April 13 the Building will open at 6:00 am. All items are the responsibility of the vendor. If unattended items are lost or damaged it is not the responsibility of the event coordinator. No vehicles are permitted inside the building for purposes of loading and unloading. Vehicles may temporarily stop near the exit to quickly load and unload. Immediately after which the vehicle must be moved. Vehicles should be parked away from the building as not to obstruct the entrance and exits.

Space assignment:

Spaces will be assigned by first reserved and paid, first served. Spaces will have a number on the floor, upon checking in, the vendor will be given their assigned numbered space.

Take down:

The garage sale is advertised until 3pm at which time it is permissible to clean up your space. All vendors are asked to remove all items from the building by 4pm so volunteers may have sufficient time to clean the building.

All unsold items are to be removed from the Fairgrounds. Dumpsters are not provided.

Tables:

Tables are not provided. Vendors should provide their own table.

Electricity:

Electricity is available for 110V – 30 amp service inside the building for a $5.00 fee. A hook up of 220V for outside vendors is available for $45. Prior notification is required. No last minute service can be accommodated.

Space size:

The spaces in the Camp Millard Ag & Expo building are approximately 8.5 feet by 12 feet using the saw marks in the floor to determine the space division. The Livestock Arena Building will be 10 ft. by 10 ft. determined by tape on the floor. All items should be kept within your space including seating as not to interfere with other vendors or customers. The space rent is $25 per space, if more space is requested, there is an additional $15 fee per additional space.

No firearms or live animals will be allowed to be sold.
